

FRANCHESCA WARREN

CEO, THE EDUCATOR'S ROOM

A proven expert in urban education, instructional strategies and student engagement for 'at risk' students, Franchesca Lane-Warren is the creator of The Educator's Room, LLC, where she uses that platform to share tools and resources educators can use to empower them in the classroom.

Featured Topics

Writing in the Urban Classroom

Are you struggling with trying to improve student writing in the urban classroom? Discover and practice strategies that will engage and improve student's writing skills

Teacher Branding

Looking for ways to energize the teachers in your building? Do you need to know how to strategize your expertise to be recognized as an expert in education?

School Improvement

Improving inner city schools is a practice that many schools are struggling with. Learn and discover ways to leverage your resources in the building for optimal results.